EXPERIENCE

Editorial Assistant, Speculum: A Journal of Medieval Studies

The Medieval Academy of America, July 2022–June 2024

As the editorial assistant for Speculum, the journal of the Medieval Academy of America, I was responsible for overseeing the reception of all relevant books recently published in the field of medieval studies, formatting and fact-checking articles for publication, and compiling the back matter of the journal, as well as working as a liaison between publishers and reviewers. I was also responsible for training and managing the Speculum undergraduate interns.

Teaching Assistant

Department of History, Catholic University Spring 2019–Fall 2022

I served as a teaching assistant on courses covering Antiquity to modern American history. I led in-person and virtual discussion of primary and secondary source materials. I was responsible for grading quizzes, exams, and essays, as well as holding office hours with students.

Courses as Assistant:

- o HIST 258, “Emerging Superpower: The United States from 1877–1991”
- o HIST 235, “Medieval World” (hybrid)
- o HIST 214, “Pandemics: A Comparative History” (virtual)
- o HIST 217, “The Vikings”

Research Assistant, Dr. Megan Murton,

Department of English, Catholic University Fall 2019–Spring 2020

I assisted Dr. Megan Murton with research for an upcoming project, focusing on the medieval reception of Boethius’ Consolatio Philosophiae. I collected and annotated bibliographies, gathering sources in English, Latin, French, and German. In addition, I edited the manuscript of Dr. Murton’s forthcoming book in preparation for publication with Boydell & Brewer.
